

WORK PLAN FOR 2022

1. Implementation – We act

UCLG will foster, identify and highlight successful efforts by the UCLG membership to achieve the global agendas through localization at the local and territorial level, in particular through the establishment of Local4ActionHubs.

1.1. Supporting members to deliver their implementation initiatives

CORE ACTION:

- Foster the establishment of a system of decentralized cooperation programmes to facilitate the exchange of experiences on how to achieve the SDGs, the New Urban Agenda, the Paris Agreement and the Sendai Framework and prepare our movement for the implementation of our Common Agenda.
- Establishment of Local4Action Hubs
- Develop demand-driven learning towards the localization of SDGs, supporting implementation.
- Raise awareness of the global goals among local and regional governments so that they can localize them.
- Implement the initiative of the Global Compact of Mayors.
- Develop platforms and publications that will showcase what members are doing.

2. Advocacy and Policy – We advocate

We will continue developing the policymaking of the World Organization, aimed at building stronger advocacy momentum. Greater acknowledgement and recognition of the amplified and articulated voice of the constituency will be sought through a consolidated Global Taskforce and a strengthened World Assembly of Local and Regional Governments, facilitated by UCLG with the active participation of other local and regional government networks, as joint representation mechanisms for the constituency.

The development of the Pact for the Future of Humanity that UCLG was mandated to develop in our World Council in 2020, will be at the core of our policy and advocacy efforts. The axes of the Pact (People, Planet, and Government) will be the guiding force on the key themes that UCLG delivers on during the year.

We will push for the transformation of the social contract through a strengthened partnership with the international community, the renewal of our Town Hall track with the civil society, and building on the conversations with our communities to achieve the Global Agendas through active localization of the SDGs and powered by the New Urban Agenda.

2.1. Partnerships with the international community

2.1.1 Alliance with key international partners

CORE ACTION:

- Develop a dedicated newsletter and briefing materials on the above-mentioned summits.
- Put in place policy dialogues with other constituencies, as well as with key actors in the international community.
- Develop messaging and awareness campaign strategies.

3. Monitoring and reporting – We research

The aim of the next GOLD VI Report on "Pathways to urban and territorial equality: Addressing inequalities through local transformation strategies" to be published in 2022 is precisely to tackle the need for equality. It will approach the multidimensional focus on inequalities and promote a broad participatory methodology involving UCLG network, civil society organizations and academia.

The GOLD VI report will analyse evidence of and articulate possible responses to the multiple manifestations of inequalities, mainly on their territorial dimension, and the opportunities for local and regional governments to take practical and collective actions against those inequalities. We will contribute to local and regional governments' storytelling, informing the reporting by national governments and other stakeholders. We will strive to ensure that local experiences influence the actual implementation and assessment of the agenda.

3.1. Showcasing the contribution of local and regional governments to the SDGs

CORE ACTION:

- Co-organize thematic dialogues on the priorities identified by the Executive Bureau.
- Strengthen the UCLG-UBUNTU Advisory Panel, gathering experts and institutional partners to help develop intelligence and a forward-thinking agenda.
- Continue consultations with task teams of local leaders from different regions, with the support of UCLG policy development and consultation mechanisms and experts, to follow up on the results of the implementation.

ENHANCED ACTION:

- Organize consultations to promote a broad debate at all levels on key issues relevant to the agenda of LRGs.

3.2. Global Observatory on Local Democracy and Decentralization

3.2.1. GOLD REPORT

CORE ACTION:

- Final revision of the content, edition and publication of the sixth Report of the Global Observatory on Local Democracy and Decentralization (GOLD VI) focused on the state of urban and territorial inequalities worldwide
- Dissemination of the report and ensuring the key findings are useful to improve the policy-making process

ENHANCED ACTION:

- Collect case studies and evidence-based practices through the sixth GOLD Report on the state of urban and territorial inequalities worldwide.
- Develop, review and validate the different GOLD VI Report contributions following a participative approach developed by UCLG members, the main civil society networks and academia partners.

- Develop and disseminate the GOLD VI sub-products foreseen: both related to the contents and to the process.
- Promote the inclusion of the GOLD V and GOLD VI Reports findings and recommendations in relevant for a and work areas and to improve the policy-making process.
- Promote GOLD VI process and gather academic expertise and use a methodology that involves directly engagement with local and regional governments, civil society organizations and experts from around the world.

3.2.3. HLPF Report and SDG localization

CORE ACTION:

- Facilitation and coordination of the Local and Regional Governments' Report to the 2022 HLPF.
- Enhance consultation with UCLG members and GTF partners on the country-by-country evolution of the SDGs localization process (analysis based on the VNRs presented to the HLPF in 2022 as well as those presented the previous years, and on the GTF annual survey distributed by UCLG, its sections and GTF members)
- Development of other actions (Voluntary Subnational Reviews, Community of Practice on VLRs, Cross-Institutional Working Group) that aim to support the SDG localization process around the world.

ENHANCED ACTION:

- Collect case studies and evidence-based practices through the HLPF Report on the Localization of the SDGs. It will also strengthen the follow-up of the implementation of the New Urban Agenda.
- Support the Permanent Working Group on Capacity and Institution Building and UCLG Sections to gather information on Local Government Association consultations for SDGs implementation.
- Support several national local government associations from some of the reporting countries in the development of Voluntary Subnational Reviews that give account of the state of SDG localization in their countries, permeate the national reporting process and advocate towards an enabling environment for local and regional governments in the country. Coordination and follow-up on the work of the previous associations that elaborated a VSR in 14 countries in 2020 and 2021, and publication of the VSR Guidelines.
- Continue to develop the collaboration with UN-Habitat on the VLR Guidelines Series; the third volume on Megacities and VLRs is scheduled to be published in the last quarter of 2022.
- Continue to support the Cross-Institutional Working Group on SDG monitoring that aims to improve the different processes related to monitoring the localization of the SDGs.

3.2.4. World Observatory on Subnational Government Finance and Investment

CORE ACTION:

- Carry out the full update of the financial data and qualitative information for a third edition of the Report of the World Observatory on Subnational Government Finance and Investment.
- Promote the access to reliable data on subnational government finance and incentivise the exchange on best practices and innovative experiences on the ground, through the dissemination of the UCLG MOOC on Subnational Government Finance, the World Observatory's 2022 report and the FMDV-led Local Finance Knowledge Hub.

ENHANCED ACTION:

- Launch and monitor the update of 60+ country profiles for the 2022 report of the World Observatory, including a specific section dedicated to the financial impacts of the COVID-19 crisis.
- Organise two webinars and draft a research paper on the state and trends of property taxes (as part of an effort to strengthen municipalities' own-source revenues in developing countries), based on the findings of the Observatory.

- Publish the third report of the World Observatory, including an extensive summary of key findings
- In collaboration with the OECD, organise an international conference to promote the report and further disseminate its findings in several national, regional and international venues (e.g. Africities 9)
- Support the FMDV in the expansion of the Local Finance Knowledge Hub, with the continued production of interviews with practitioners regarding their work to support subnational government finance.

3.2.5. Monitoring component of the Local4Action HUB

ENHANCED ACTION via our partnership with SIDA:

- Develop the monitoring component of the UCLG Local4Action HUBs with SIDA support.
- Enhance the GOLD online platform with new tools and capacities, as part of the UCLG Local4Action HUB, with:
 - Good Practices and Experiences developed by local and regional governments that illustrate innovative strategies for the localization of the SDGs and the NUA
 - Support specific UCLG Sections' research work on enabling environments for sustainable urbanization.
 - Send a Newsletter to all members with new features and contents

4. Learning – We learn

UCLG will consolidate itself as a learning network through three main axes the training of trainers, facilitating peer to peer learning experiences and pay particular attention to the trainer community gathered in the learning forum. The Learning Strategy of UCLG has evolved over the last years; and we will continue to disseminate our work around localization with local and regional governments associations, bringing localization to life by developing new methodologies to train trainers, developing on-line tools and helping to enhance local governments policies and public services.

Drawing on members' experience and mechanisms, UCLG will continue to transform practical and network knowledge into learning modules that allow upscaling of lessons learned and enhancing learning methodologies, as well as renewed partnerships building on cooperation and peer-to-peer learning

4.1 The learning agenda

CORE ACTION:

- Enhance and interconnect learning opportunities. Connect practical knowledge and existing initiatives of members and networks, and facilitate connections between members and networks themselves (Sections, Committees, Fora, Working Groups, Communities of Practice and partners).
- Densify and highlight the opportunities of files and knowledge lead inside the UCLG secretariats
- Foster cooperation & learning between donors, experts and practitioners around certain topics.
- Connect global policy narrative to practical learning and evidence of cases
- Build further on the existing partnership with UN Habitat, in localizing and in resilience and planning
- Engage UNDP and UN Habitat in the process of module roll out (development, roll out, monitor)
- Expand partnership activities with UNDRR and the MCR, including associates
- Continue the South-South learning partnership and LED with the ILO
- Evaluate and upscale Peer learning on migration in Mediterranean project
- Continue partnership with connective cities to broaden peer learning on several themes
- Support the Guangzhou award with methodological advice

ENHANCED ACTION:

- Develop Training of Trainers and peer-to-peer learning events around the world to contribute to the localization of the SDGs, the New Urban Agenda and the Sendai Framework.
- Engage and support trainers and skills
- Support and document learning methodologies and good practices of members

ENHANCED ACTION via our partnership with SIDA:

- Support the overall UCLG strategy with targeted training of trainers on global agendas.
- Develop training of trainers' activities to broaden the scope of action of members involved in the localization process of the Sendai Framework.
- Support and promote a Learning Guide that will provide local governments with guidance for crisis preparedness and response strategies.
- Expand the localization of SDG through practical long-term engagement of members
- Support African and Asia-Pacific cities to include a culture dimension in local policies.
- Organize learning events for specific UCLG Sections.

5. Strengthening the network, leadership and governance – We meet, we listen, we communicate.

In 2022, UCLG will move forward in its strategic priorities with a renewed political leadership that will contribute to consolidate the mechanisms for active political participation and policy debate. The UCLG World Congress and Local and Regional Leaders Summit in Daejeon will become the scene for showcasing the UCLG Pact for the Future, ushering in a new era the World Organization. Leading towards our World Congress, the synchronization of the work of the secretariats of the Sections will be essential as will be the coordination between the work of the policy councils and the entirety of the World Organization.

The World Organization will develop its cohesion strategies to enhance its capacity to act as a network by strengthening the themes it addresses, the links between its different parts, and by reinforcing the Secretariats at both global and regional levels. The organization will further develop all UCLG strategies and tools that will further enhance its transparency, democratic participation and accountability, and continue to develop processes such as the #CitiesAreListening Experiences, which will feed our Town Hall Process in the Daejeon World Congress.

The UCLG cross-cutting activities for 2022 will aim at strengthening the links among the five areas of the strategic priorities, and develop tools to synchronize the work of the World Organization, including the dissemination of the renewed narrative of UCLG leading to the Pact for the Future through the #PowerOfWe website, and facilitating access to the political documents of UCLG through #UCLGMeets.

The outreach and communication activities of UCLG will play a prominent role in the dissemination of the UCLG World Congress, harnessing the #PowerOfWe narrative and in collaboration with the Daejeon hosts.
