CANDIDATURAS A LA COPRESIDENCIA

Resumen y recomendaciones

El proceso de presentación de candidaturas a la Copresidencia de CGLU es un ejercicio global que se lleva a cabo mediante un envío masivo a todos los miembros.

La Comisión de Asuntos Estatutarios acordó el calendario y el anuncio durante el Consejo Mundial de 2021. La convocatoria se anunció en marzo de 2022 y se divulgó entre los miembros de CGLU por correo electrónico. Las candidaturas debían presentarse antes del 1 de agosto de 2022.

Actualmente existen nueve candidaturas para la Copresidencia de CGLU.

LAS NORMAS ESTATUTARIAS

1. Según lo previsto en el artículo 58 de la Constitución, la Presidencia, en la que se incluyen el Presidente y hasta 5 Copresidentes, es elegida por el Consejo Mundial entre los miembros de gobiernos locales. La Presidencia también incluye a la Presidenta de la Comisión Permanente de Igualdad de Género como miembro ex officio de pleno derecho en el caso de que no se alcance la cuota de género.
2. De acuerdo con el artículo 59, las candidaturas para el Presidente y los Co-Presidentes pueden ser presentadas por: a) el Bureau Ejecutivo; o b) al menos seis miembros de Gobiernos Locales de países diferentes y al menos de dos regiones mundiales distintas (además de la propia). Los apoyos de los miembros deben buscarse en las diferentes regiones mundiales, pero no de una Sección per se.
3. Las candidaturas no necesariamente han de contar con el apoyo de su Sección respectiva en su conjunto. No obstante, se sobreentiende que es necesario realizar esfuerzos para alcanzar un acuerdo en el caso de que existan varias candidaturas dentro de una misma región sin que ello conlleve necesariamente un apoyo formal de la Sección.
4. A pesar del carácter global del mandato, se sobreentiende que una presidencia colegiada es más sostenible si la integran miembros provenientes de diferentes Secciones y representan la amplia diversidad de la Organización.
